User journey

CODECLAN

Your name   Boris The Blade

Date   9th July 2021

User action

1 Start

Enters app url address in web browser and hits enter

User action

2

Clicks on add button

User action

3

Clicks on Add country

User action

4

Clicks on add photo button

System response

App loads showing menu and front page with a few random locations

System response

Menu expands showing options to add Country or Location

System response

A page loads allowing user to add a new country.

System response

Pop-ups appear where user can select photos.

User action

5

User selects photos and click button add

User action

6

User has opportunity to either adjust meta data, delete photos or add more photos. Once user is happy it click button add location

User action

7

User action

8 End

System response

A table below appears with photos and meta data.

System response

User gets redirected to a main page.
Alternative will be a view with a continent to which country was added and cards with all countries

System response

System response